Walk 6 – Bluebell woods Grade - Moderate Start point – Village pub Time – 50 minutes Distance – 2.5Km/1.6mils

Walk description – This walk is stunning in spring when the blue bells are out, hence the walk name.

- From the pub walk up the village to the first bend in the road and take the farm access road right (footpath sign) to Cefn Cae farm.
- Go straight through the farm yard and go through the metal gate.
- Go over the next wooden stile/gate and follow the track along the right hand side of the field to next gate/stile.
- Turn sharp left after the gate/stile until you come to a gate and a wall stile. Choose either to get onto the wide track.
- Turn right and head along the track for 100m.
- At the sharp bend go straight ahead into the field using the stile.

Notice the dog grave with inscription just right of the stile.

- With the hedge to your left go to the far end of the field.

- Go left over a stile and then with the fence to your right follow the path to the top of the field and then onto the road by a gate.
- Go left along the road passing Coed Mawr hall and then go up a hill. On the right you will see a very elaborate metal stairway.
- Climb the stairway and go up the path to a gate. Turn right through the gate and go across a dried up stream bed.
- Follow the path above a large drop to your right. BE VERY CAREFUL HERE. Follow the path bearing left and then right.

In spring blue bells are everywhere to be seen on the woodland floor – enjoy!!

- You should end up by a stream. Now keep the stream to your right.
- You will shortly cross a small plank bridge. You will start to see footpath arrows. Follow them all the way through the woods to a fence with a step over stile. Enter the field.

Lovely views from this field down the Conwy Valley.

- Go into the field and then walk up hill bearing diagonally right to a gate. There should be a derelict lorry in the next field.

- After the gate bear left and go towards and go through another gate and pass between two cottages Biarth and Biart to gain access to the road.
- Go left all the way down the road back to the village.
- At the road junction go left and back to the pub.
